Scar Tissue

"Would you like to see my scar?" We hear this question from some people who have had surgery, scraped the road from their motorcycle, or suffered a wound in war. Sometimes they are more anxious to show it than we are to see it.

The reverse happens too. We would like to see a scar, but the person—for private reasons—chooses not to show it.

We all carry scars. Some are physical and quite visible. Others are well concealed. Some scars are emotional. They make themselves known even when we wish they did not. And some of our scars make us who we are. They are signs of our resilience, of the ill-intent of enemies, of moments of foolishness, or times of unimaginable bravery. For some of us, our biography is the story of our scars.

St. Paul tells the Galatians, "I bear the marks of Jesus on my body." Paul had his share of physical and emotional pain, and he carried scars. They were not signs of hurt and pain, not signs of foolishness or bravery, not signs of illness or treachery. They were signs of Jesus. Because of Jesus, Paul endured all things. His scars told less about the tenacity of Paul, and more about the faithfulness of Christ.

Where are your scars? What do they represent? Who do they represent? Do you conceal them? Or do you ask, "Would you like to see my scar?"

Parish Youth Honors

Each year the Diocese of Greensburg recognizes high school seniors whose Catholic faith has been lived in their personal life, in their relationships, community, the diocese, and in their commitment to their parish by attending Youth Group and volunteering their time to the parish.

Bishop Malesic will celebrate a Eucharistic Liturgy on Sunday, July 7 at 3 pm at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral to recognize these young people. Congratulations to the following youth from our parish:

- Anthony Grazioli
- Maura King
- Megan Lessner
- Alyssa Stitt
- Emily Wolfe

Sanctuary Candle

The Sanctuary Candle will burn from July 5 to July 18 for Fr. Ricky from the Parishioners of St. Patrick Parish.
