22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 14:1,7-14

A man was aspiring to be the leader of his group. He decided to speak continuously and flaunt his intelligence thinking they would notice and choose him. He was always talking and he was very opinionated believing this would be admired and he would become elected as their leader. When election day came, he was not selected to lead the group. The chosen one was quiet and humble and kind.

A crowd will choose a humble person over an egotistical person. A humble person will not need praise. A humble person will be content doing his assigned task. A humble person will carefully consider a position and not boast or seek praise.

In the gospel for this Sunday, Jesus talks about humility. Jesus tells us that if we are invited to an important banquet, we should choose to stay in the background and only move to a place of honor if asked. Acquiring the virtue of humility can be accomplished by following Jesus. Jesus is inviting us daily to live beyond our character of arrogance and hunger for prominence.

Jesus asks us to be humble. The virtue of humility can become a walkway towards Jesus. Despite diversity, strive to be humble. All things are possible when we walk with our Lord.

Sunshine Corner

If the mountain seems too big today, then climb a hill instead. If the morning brings you sadness, its ok to stay in bed. If the day ahead weighs heavy and your plans feel like a curse, there's no shame in rearranging, don't make yourself feel worse. If a shower stings like needles and a bath feels like you'll drown, if you haven't washed your hair for days, don't throw away your crown. A day is not a lifetime, a rest is not defeat, don't think of it as failure, just a quiet, kind retreat. It's ok to take a moment from an anxious, fractured mind, the world will not stop turning while you get realigned. The mountain will still be there when you want to try again, you can climb it in your own time, just love yourself till then.

Fall Festival update

The Fall Festival will be held on October 2nd from 11am to 3pm.

 Two books (20 tickets) of raffle tickets were sent to all homes on Friday, August 19th. Please return sold and unsold tickets by placing them in the offertory, dropping them off at the parish office, mailing them, or dropping them in the black box located outside the office door by Friday, September 30th. The last Sunday to put raffle tickets in the offertory is September 25th to ensure they will be part of the drawing.

 Volunteer sign-up sheets will be available the weekend of September 3-4. One change has been made this year, pies will no longer be made. Because of this, donations of cakes and non-refrigerated desserts are being requested. A sign-up sheet will be available in September .

 There will also be a Bake Sale the day of the festival. If you would like to donate items to the Bake Sale, please sign up on the appropriate sheet, which will also be available in September. Items for the Bake Sale should be individually wrapped and ready to sell.

 We are asking your support in donating a basket to be used in our basket raffle. Baskets can be dropped off in the cry room or at the parish office during office hours.

Many volunteers are needed and your help is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please contact the Parish Office.
