Please know we are doing our best to accommodate all masses requested for the 2022 year during this year. Please understand that most masses for our loved one's passing are requested at the time of their death. In order to avoid repetitive masses for the same loved one, we have all mass requests on a rotating schedule. Please also remember some masses are reserved this time of the year for the following year and we do accommodate two masses on the weekend per family. We ask for your patience, as we also must remember the recently passed in this rotation as they are in need of our prayers and intentions as well. Please contact Sarah at the parish office during office hours with any questions or concerns.

The Sugarcreek Log Church will be closed for the year on October 1, 2022. The church will reopen for visits on May 1, 2023

Thank you for your understanding.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 17:11-19

What does God require from us to be healed from our physical and emotional sickness? God requires Faith, Humility and gratefulness.

In our gospel, when Jesus was on His way to Jerusalem, His attention was caught from afar by ten men who were shouting with faith. "Jesus master! Have pity on us!" It was not their shouting that caught His attention, it was their infinite faith that caught Jesus' attention.

As a result, the ten of them were healed, but not all of them were humble and grateful enough to appreciate the healing that they received from Jesus. Only one Samaritan went back to Jesus to express his appreciation.

Jesus said to the Samaritan, "Ten were cleansed, where they not? Where are the other nine? Was Jesus expecting them to say thanks because He wanted to be honored? Of course not! Jesus was looking for the other nine because He wanted to see if they have the virtue of humility and gratefulness. Unfortunately, they did not have this for they did not return.

We have three important lessons that we can learn from the gospel today:

First: We must always have faith in Jesus, no matter what storms we encounter in our lives we must always have faith, we must not lose this faith.

Second: We must always humble ourselves before God by following His will for us and not our own selfish will.

Third: We must always be grateful to God for the countless blessings and miracles that He continuously bestows upon us. We may not notice it but everyday we receive many blessings from God. The food on our table that He daily gives us, the health that we have, the new life that He gives us every morning. These to seem trivial, but these are blessings from God that we need to remember to feel grateful for.

Let us always be cognizant of the fact that we must always have faith regardless of our life's trials. We must always be humble before Him and our fellowmen. Humility is the gateway to more blessings from God. Lastly we must always be thankful for all the miracles that He grants in our lives.

Huge thank you to all those who made our Fall Festival a success. All the volunteers, everyone who graciously donated baskets or baked goods or their time, and for those that supported us by coming. We are very grateful to each and every one of you.

Sunshine Corner

One day, the mountain that is in front of you will be so far behind you, it will barely be visible in the distance. But the person you become in learning to get over it? That will stay with you forever. And that is the point of the mountain--Brianna Wiest
