16th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Matthew 13:24-30

Do you fear judgement of God?

God’s judgement day is something that we all fear because we may not yet be prepared. God’s judgement day may come when we least expect it. When His judgement day comes, we cannot change or postpone it. If God denies us from entering heaven, we must accept it.

If God’ judgement of us is to be in hell, it means that our time spent on earth is not worthy in His eyes. It means that we led sinful lives. There may have been times when someone has tried to help us embrace God and leave behind sin, yet we chose to ignore this call toward repentance.

Our Gospel today offers us hope. It tells us that before God’s judgement comes to us, He will offer us many opportunities for renewal and repentance. Let us take advantage of this offering from God. We can do this by walking away from our sins and humbly asking for forgiveness from Him.

The Good Lord will not judge us for what we do now or what we have done, no matter how sinful it is. He knows of the temptations of this world and that deep within us lies goodness and our willingness to walk away from our sins. God is a patient God, a God of forgiveness, hope and love. A God of second chances. He will wait for us until we heed His call of repentance.

The Ten Commandments

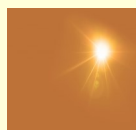

5. Thou shalt not kill

Any taking of life is profaning the Fifth Commandment. A whole industry—abortion—has been built around violation of this Commandment. This includes the harvesting and use of stem cells. There is the acceptance of euthanasia and suicide. God is the Lord and Giver of Life. Only He must be the One Who calls life unto Himself. Disregard for this Commandment has drawn morals to a new low. Degeneration of morals threatens the general well-being of every nation. The basic right to life is non-debatable. Human life must be respected from conception to natural death. Violation of this Commandment is man's useless attempt to control his own destiny. Basic acceptance of God's Will preclude such an attitude. God's Will is the basis and foundation of all the Commandments.

VBS —Come Splash with Jesus

A Heartfelt thank you to all of those who helped in any way to make our Vacation Bible School a success this year. Thank you to all the children who attended, to their parents who brought them, to all the workers who worked so hard in planning, decorating, teaching, baking, preparing food, cleaning, and to all of those who attended our Bible school sneak peek celebration. The future of our Parish greatly depends on our youth, and it is so important to celebrate them in their journey of faith. (Pictures to follow).
