From the Desk of the Administrator

I am very glad to be able to be here at St. Patrick for Masses this weekend and to meet as many of you as possible. As previously mentioned, please feel free to reach out to Fr. Alan for the day-to-day pastoral and spiritual needs of the parish, as I do my best to make a weekly visit to the parish office to sign checks and take care of any other administrative duties.

As our nation is celebrating Independence Day weekend, we are mindful that we as a culture can often be misled into believing that freedom comes from being able to do anything we want, whenever we want it- often referred to as the "throw-away culture." We as Catholic Christians are often ridiculed for not showing love and understanding in wanting to take certain freedoms away, but in reality, we as disciples know that this could not be further from the truth.

We as the Church in the United States in particular commit ourselves to working and praying toward continuing to foster and restore a culture of life in our nation, and we know that there is still much work to be done. As Bishop Kulick clearly states in his Pastoral Letter Donum Vitae (The Gift of Life), "no number of protests, criticisms, or condemnations can change this truth [of what we believe] or will cause us to waver from proclaiming that truth," but always with compassion and love, as Christ himself did.

With this in mind, we commit ourselves not to spending our lives searching for what will only bring us happiness that is fleeting, but rather put our hand to the plow for lies ahead- true and lasting happiness that can only come if we remain faithful to him who set us free!

This Friday, July 11 is the Memorial of St. Benedict, Abbot (+547), who is known as the founder of Western Monasticism. His famous monastic rule is noted for its wisdom and moderation and need for obedience. Benedict founded twelve monasteries and today the members of the Order number 7,500 religious, including those within our own diocese who are part of St. Vincent Archabbey in Latrobe.

Yours in Christ,
Father Dinga

Thank you!

A Heartfelt thank you to all of those who helped in any way to make our Vacation Bible School a success this year. Thank you to all the children who attended, to their parents who brought them, to all the workers who worked so hard in planning, decorating, teaching, baking, preparing food, cleaning, and to all of those who attended our Bible school sneak peek celebration. The future of our Parish depends on our youth, and it is so important to celebrate them in their journey of faith. (Pictures will be included in next week's bulletin)
