ored on September 27), a priest of France during the 17th century who worked to renew the clergy of the day and defended the poor and the abandoned, founding the Congregation of the Missions, which currently numbers over 3,000 members. A special word of gratitude to all those from the parishes in our region who devote their time to serving at the St. Vincent de Paul thrift store in Kittanning.

September 29 is the Feast of the Archangels Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, who each have a designated mission in the Scriptures- both Old and New Testaments- of how they are to carry out God's work and deliver his message. On September 30, we honor St. Jerome who is known for his love of Scripture and dedication to making Christ known through his translating of the sacred texts, and famously quoted: "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ." On October 1, we honor St. Therese of the Child Jesus, affectionately known as The Little Flower, who through her own innocence of life and her "little way" of how to grow spiritually and experience a deeper relationship with the Lord, was declared a Doctor of the Church. We are grateful for the witness of the Lay Carmelites from our parish communities in taking on the spirituality of St. Therese and the other Carmelite saints as an example for all of us. This week we also honor the Holy Guardian Angels on October 2, who we believe are sent by God to watch over and protect each of us personally as we strive to do God's will and live in a way that is worthy of the call we have been given. We are privileged to have in our region, the Chapel dedicated to the Guardian Angels.

The Church in the United States gives thanks for the beatification of Venerable Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen, which took place this past week in St. Louis, Missouri. One of the great Catholic evangelists of the twentieth century, Archbishop Sheen brought the Gospel into millions of homes through his preaching, writing, radio broadcasts, and the television program Life Is Worth Living. As the Church now honors him with the title "Blessed," may his example remind us that holiness is possible in every age and inspire us to use the gifts and opportunities God has given us to proclaim Christ with courage, clarity, and joy. Blessed Fulton Sheen, pray for us!

Yours in Christ, Fr. Eric Dinga

From the Desk of the Administrator

This week all of the priests of our diocese will be participating in our annual clergy retreat. Note that there will be no Masses celebrated on Tuesday through Friday of this week. Please keep all of the priests, along with Bishop Kulick, in your prayers that we may take advantage of this opportunity that we have each year to grow in our priestly fraternity, and be renewed by the Holy Spirit for the work of ministry as we return to our various pastoral responsibilities.

The Church celebrates a variety of Saints' days this week, including St. Vincent De Paul (normally hon-
